Congress Venue, HICO

HICO stands for Hwabaek International Convention Center located in Gyeongju, the ancient capital city of the Silla Dynasty. The name was inspired by the Hwabaek culture of the Silla Dynasty, which was a system of holding meetings with the principle of arriving at a unanimous resolution based on active discussions. It is a befitting name for a convention center where diverse people gather and communicate to draw out the best results.

See You in Gyeongju! The City with the Most UNESCO World Heritage Sites

Gyeongju is a city located in the southeastern part of the Korean peninsula. It was the capital of the Silla Dynasty for a thousand years from AD 1st to 9th centuries. Gyeongju contains so many historical sites and cultural assets that the entire city is considered to be a museum without walls. Most prominently, Gyeongju is the home to three UNESCO World Heritage Sites: Bulguksa Temple and Seokguram Grotto, Yangdong traditional village, and the Gyeongju Historic Areas.
